Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by _____ clear and convincing evidence _____ a preponderance of the evidence that _____

As noted in the Alternative Findings above, the defendant has voluntarily consented to detention in this matter. The record should reflect that the defendant has a criminal history dating back to 1994. He has a previous felony conviction in state court involving illegal drugs.

Further, the record indicates that he has a history of violating the terms of his state court probation. He also failed to appear for sentencing in state court. Based upon the foregoing information coupled with the defendant's consenting to being detained in this matter, the defendant shall be detained without bond pending trial. The issue of bond may be raised again should the defendant's circumstances change. IT IS SO ORDERED.

Part III—Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
